RemFest 2008

Remington's second annual block party, RemFest, took place on September 20th on the corner of 27th Street and Huntingdon Ave. (pictures to the right).

The event was organized by the Greater Remington Improvement Association, with help from the Church of the Guardian Angel, the Greater Homewood Community Corporation, and many sponsors who donated time, money, and supplies.

Thanks to Charm City Cakes, H&S Bakery, Long John's Pub, and Bill Cunningham for making generous donations that made the day possible. Also thanks to all the residents who helped set up tables, pass out food, and play music for the crowd. Most importantly, thanks to the crowd for showing up! We'll see you all again next year.

Maryland Energy Assistance Program:

Help for Remington Residents

Submitted by Betsy Childs, Episcopal Housing Corporation

Would you like some help paying the heat and electric bills in 2009? Stop in to the Guardian Angel Parish Hall on Tuesday morning from 9 until noon. A counselor will be there to supply and assist residents with filling out the Maryland Energy Assistance Program forms for 2009.

MEAP is a Maryland state-wide program that provides assistance grants to help with home heating bills. The program has certain paperwork needed and requirements to be met and Betsy Childs from Episcopal Housing Corporation will review this with you.

There are some other programs that are Citywide that we may have available to meet your needs.

Property Management Administrator Wanted

Submitted by Donald Manekin, Seawall Development

Seawall Development Company, a full service real estate company in Baltimore City founded by Donald and Thibault Manekin, seeks a tenant focused individual capable of managing all bookkeeping and accounting functions and certain tenant related functions.
