Village Green Wins "Best New Garden"

Submitted by Eric Imhof, Village
Green volunteer

The Remington Village Green community garden (located on Fox St. between 28th and 29th) won 1st prize in the category of Best New Garden at the 21st annual City Farm Supper, celebrated on Saturday, July 26th at the Cylburn Arboretum. The supper, which is organized by the Baltimore City Department of Recreation and Parks, is both a potluck and an awards ceremony held in order to recognize and honor the achievements of urban gardeners. Other awards included Best Locally Grown Produce, Best Baltimore Recipe, and Best Individual Garden.

Remington Youth Project Radio

Submitted by Beth Barbush,
Art on Purpose

Our Remington Youth Radio Project (ouR-YPR) is a FREE radio documentary workshop being organized by Art on Purpose. It will start in mid October 2008 and go through February 2009. We will meet once a week on Tuesday evenings at Church of the Guardian Angel for two hours a week (time TBA). There is room for 10 participants ages 11- 17yrs.

Some activities in the class will include: collecting stories from residents; telling/recording your own stories; doing interviews; editing audio; and putting together stories for a radio broadcast.

Please contact BETH BARBUSH to sign up. Call 410-322-7080 or drop your request to participate in the mailbox of 2942 Huntingdon Ave, Apt A, by September 20th if you would like to join the class or get more information. Please leave the student's name, age, address, and parents' name(s).
