Hauntingdon 2013 is sponsored by GRIA with support from Baltimore Office of Promotion & The Arts, Seawall Development Company, and area businesses

It's bats, boos and things that go bump in the night!

Hauntingdon—Spooky fun for the whole family! Right here in Remington is Baltimore's premier family-friendly Halloween block party extravaganza! A community driven event, Hauntingdon provides a fun, free, and safe place for children of all ages to enjoy Halloween. Dozens of decorated porches provide fun trick-or-treating spots for kids to engage in activities, there will be live music, a parade and more!

It takes place Saturday, October 26, 2013, from 5 pm to 8 pm, on the 2900 block of Huntingdon Ave. with the whole block closed off for the fun!

Remington History featured

On October 10, Remington resident, Kathleen Ambrose, will be presenting a lecture for the Odyssey program entitled Remington: Its History, Its Heart and Its Soul.

It will run from 6:30-8:30 pm, and will also include a tour of Greater Remington on October 12 from 3-4:00pm (after the Marathoners have hopefully finished). The cost is $47. For more information logon to www.odyssey.jhu.edu.

Remington named Baltimore's best 'Up and Coming Neighborhood'

The September 18th edition of City Paper was the Best of Baltimore issue, where readers and the paper's staff decide the winners in hundreds of categories.

This year, City Paper told its readers something that most people in Remington already know: that Remington is a really great place to live. We were named the 'Best Up and Coming Neighborhood' for 2013. The article cites our affordable housing, cool businesses and new development, including the Tire Shop and the Remington Main Street proposal.

In addition, Remington businesses won in eight other categories. Here are the winners:

Best Wings - The Dizz
Best Atmosphere - WC Harlan
Best Remington Bar - 3 Miles House
Best Bartender - Lane at WC Harlan
Best Underground Venue - BFF
Best Cheap Restaurant - The Dizz
Best Late Night Dining - Paper Moon
Best Place to Hear Rock Music - The Ottobar

Congratulations!

Keep Winter out this year!

On November 2nd between 10 am and 2 pm neighborhood volunteers will be working with Alpha Phi Omega, a local JHU fraternity prepping homes for winter.

This is a free service, so please, call and register for participation. Appointments will be set up for that date and a time that is convenient for you. Participants are required to be at the house at the appointed times.

The APO fraternity will do work that includes installing plastic on windows to keep out drafts, preparing pipes to prevent freezing and other steps that will help lower heating bills and keep the house warmer when the temperatures drop.

Please contact Betsy Childs at 410-366-6200 to register.

Remington Business Showcase

Hayles and Howe

Hayles and Howe, located at 2700 Sisson Street, is an international company specializing in ornamental plasterwork and scagliola, which are architectural elements that resemble stone. The company was founded in Bristol, England in 1978, and expanded to the United States in 1992. Their Remington office is the headquarters for Hayles and Howe's U.S. operations. Vice President Graham Banks is in charge of the Remington office.

Hayles and Howe has completed restoration projects on a number of high-profile buildings in both England and the United States. They have worked on Buckingham Palace, Windsor Castle and the Royal Opera House. Here in the U.S. they have done restoration on Grand Central Station in NYC and in Baltimore, their projects include the Lyric Opera House, the Hippodrome Theater and the Tremont Grand Ballroom on Charles Street.

Remington Neighborhood Plan Meeting

Wednesday October 23rd at 6 pm

Miller's Court, 2601 Howard Street

Back in April and May, after five years of work and dozens of community workshops, the first draft of the Remington Neighborhood Plan was revealed to the community. Several dozen comments about the Plan were received. Now, a final draft of the Plan has been prepared that incorporates many of the comments received, and is ready to be reviewed by the public. Come see the future of Remington that you and your neighbors have helped create.
